

Effective Networking

Monday 15th June 2009 6:00pm for 6:30pm
The Ranch, 100 Histon Road Cambridge

You are about to attend a major business event, you need to make some contacts and turn them into business opportunities.

- But who will be there? What if you don't know anyone?
- What can you do to enter conversations and meet people?
- How can you turn these brief meetings into ongoing solid contacts?
- And are you in fact as good at networking as you might think you are?

Attend our Effective Networking event and find out

This special event will be a brilliant opportunity to learn more about effective networking and to develop your existing skills – the only cost to you will be an hour and a half of your time and whatever you choose to buy at the bar.

JCI has arranged an award-winning speaker on networking, Kate Atkin. There will also be plenty of time to network with other guests, putting those skills straight into practice.

Book now: e-mail Gemma Cockbill on gcockbill@hotmail.com or call 07729 374538

Who Is Speaking?

Kate Atkin, local businesswoman, author and speaker will talk on effective networking; her training and personal development business, Aspire 2, has been built through networking and recommendations. www.aspire-2.com

In May 2007 Kate won the District Speech Evaluation Contest run by Toastmasters International – coming number one in the UK & Ireland. She was recognised as the Most Outstanding Trainer in JCI UK in 2005, and is a World Debating Champion.

Kate is a member of the Professional Speakers Association, Toastmasters International, past president of JCI Cambridge and senator of JCI UK. Kate is also a published author on the subjects of confidence and networking.
